DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

From the Louisville Courier.

THE RECONSTRUCTION CONVENTIONS.

The first of the Conventions provided for by the reconstruction acts has been in session at Montgomery, Ala., since the 5th instant. Upon that Convention, according to the Radical plan, devolves the grave duty of framing for the great State of Alabama a Constitution under which she is to take her place in the Union.

Constitution-making has ever been regarded as an affair requiring all the wisdom and experience that could be made available. When the Romans were preparing their Twelve Tables they not only engaged their wisest men in the task, but obliged them to go through all the cities of Greece to study the various systems of government there. When Magna Charta was wrested from King John, it was done by the ablest and best men of England. When the Constitution of the United States was to be framed, such statesmen as Jefferson, Hamilton and Madison were assigned the task. In the formation of the respective State governments heretofore, the same rule has invariably been observed. Common sense and a proper regard for the public weal have, in all ages, taught men that none but the able and discreet should be intrusted with the grave and responsible duty of making for the people an organic law.

The Radicals, however, in their boasted progress, have discarded all such old-fogy notions. The reconstruction measure is the embodiment of Radical polity, and it practically institutes a new and startling theory. That theory is that neither knowledge, wisdom or experience are desirable in constitutional assemblies. Our meaning will be made clear if the reader will take a glance at the Alabama Convention. That is a type of what every one of these Conventions will be, for the reconstruction acts are so framed, and the agencies for carrying them out so organized, that they cannot be materially different.

There are in the Alabama Convention eighty-four members. Of these sixteen are negroes, and the greater part of the rest Northern adventurers, many of whom are, or have been, in one shape or another, attaches of the Freedmen's Bureau. In no sense of the word are the people of Alabama represented, and, indeed, the delegates do not claim to have been elected by a majority. Every delegate, with perhaps a single exception, owes his election to the votes of negroes under the direction and control of the ruling satrap and his Radical agents.

We have said that the delegates in this reconstruction Convention in no wise represent Alabama. That is not all. The people of Alabama do not even know who most of them are. Counties are professedly represented by persons who do not now, and never did, own a foot of ground, or a dollar's worth of property in them, and who are strangers to the inhabitants. The few delegates concerning whom anything is known, the reports tell us, "are of indifferent character." In the whole body not one man is to be found of mark or merit—not one whom the citizens of Alabama would not scorn to claim as a representative.

From all accounts the physical appearance of the model Radical Convention is equal to its mental calibre and moral status. The door of the room where its deliberations are held is guarded by a coal black negro, not a very favorable specimen of his race, who, however, beat his white competitor for the place. One of the Secretaries is of the same dusky hue. As a general thing the colored delegates, we are informed, are common plantation negroes, who, when required to sign their names in the course of their august proceedings, literally make their mark, being unable to write.

Such is the Convention, which, by the authority of a Radical Congress, and supported by its minions, and backed up by the military power of the United States, usurps the functions of a Constitutional Convention for the State of Alabama. Its proceedings were ushered in by a prayer in which a negro chaplain invoked blessings upon "loyalists" and curses upon "the rebels."—Our last advices were that it was engaged in the consideration of an ordinance disfranchising all who refuse to vote.

The Convention is of course the creature of Congress and of the Radical party. Well might one of its members remark on the first day of the session: "This is not a popular assembly, but a Congressional Convention, ordered by Congress to do what Congress desires them!"

The Radical leaders have made a great mistake in supposing that "reconstruction" accomplished by such means will be permanently successful. If these mongrel Conventions are held in every State, and by virtue of their proceedings Congress declares the ten Southern States readmitted into the Union, the work will not last. The reconstruction acts are unconstitutional from beginning to end, and as soon as the Radicals are hurried from power they must and will be treated as a nullity. The Southern States have already regular State governments, if the Radical despotism would but allow them to exercise their legitimate functions; and as for reconstruction, they are already members of the Union.

THE NEGRO VOTE IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Ever since France gave the world her awful parody on the American Declaration of Independence, the rights of man have given themes for the eloquence of dreamers and fanatics. Privileges accorded by society and secured by compact, have been called "rights," and the whole point at issue between Conservatives and Radicals has been a truism taken for granted by the latter in the employment of the word we have quoted.

We have a conspicuous illustration of this in the continued talk we hear about the "right of suffrage." This can in no sense be claimed for a man to whom society has not accorded it by the provisions of its Organic Law.

It belongs to no man until conferred upon him by some uniform rule, and to talk of manhood suffrage, meaning that the human form entitles its possessor to vote, is simply nonsense.

The exercise of this privilege implies, among other things, the adjustment of taxes and the creation of debts. And no man can pretend that there is safety for property where those who vote away public money pay no part of the appropriations which they order.

Now without considering the intelligence or moral qualities, of the negro, it is worth enquiring how far his contributions to the support of society as a tax payer would give color to his claim of the "right" to vote in North Carolina, for example, we have a list furnished by the Wilmington Journal, showing the number of negroes in each county listed for taxes and registered to vote. This document is very significant. It shows that there are 23,000 names returned by the sheriffs of the various counties, and 71,657 by the Registrars! Now, throwing aside all other considerations, we may well ask, could anything be more absurd than this extra-Constitutional law which allows 38,657 of the above negro total to vote on the establishment of a new Organic law for the Old North State without being tax payers?

Let our friends there be true to themselves and the wholesome reform of Northern sentiment will ultimately relieve them from the curse of negro suffrage.—Norfolk Virginian.

And I can say, with safety, that I have one among the largest and most complete stocks that has ever been brought to this City, either before or since the war,—embracing almost ANY and everything suitable for Ladies' and Gentlemen's wear.

CALICOES, 10, 12½, 15, and 18 cents per yard.
FRENCH MERINOS, 75 cts. to $1,25 per yard.
DELAINES, POPLINS, and a great variety of other Dress Goods, embracing all the new novelties of the season, and will be sold cheap enough to insure sales.
BROWN DOMESTICS, 12½, 15 and 20 cts. per yard.
BLEACHED DOMESTICS, 12½, 15, 20 and 25 cts. per yard, and all other goods in proportion.
Also, the largest and most varied stock of

CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
SATINETS,
TWEEDS, AND KENTUCKY JEANS

I ever offered to the trade in this City, both as to price and quality.

Also a very fine assortment of White and Colored FLANNELS,

LADIES' CLOAKS,
BREAKFAST SHAWLS,
SQUARE AND LONG SHAWLS,

which will be sold at prices to suit my customers.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED HATS—new styles, from 50 cents to $4,00 each.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

The largest and best stock I ever brought to the City, consisting, in part, of J. Miles & Sons' make and others of equally high standing.

Ladies' Pegged Balmorals, from 2,00 to $2.
Ladies Sewed Balmorals, from $1,50 to $3,50.

CREECH'S is the place to come to buy your Boots and Shoes.

Hats, Hats, Hats.

From 75 cts. to $4,00. Don't stop until you come to CREECH'S to buy your Hats. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of All Goods.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "nick again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another, but I say that I have "hit the nail on the head," or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in Store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee Jews or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say, I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1867.

THE RESULT.

The additional returns received from the State only serve to confirm our fears that the State has gone Radical, owing to the sheer indifference and neglect of the white Conservatives, and the superior activity and promptness of the blacks and the few white Radicals in the State.

We cannot, at present, view this neglect in any other light than a criminal indifference to a plain duty and the common claims of society upon every man. If the present revolutionary policy of Congress and of the Radical party shall become the settled policy of the country, every man, who neglected to vote to sustain the Constitution and the Conservative cause, directly promotes the Radical policy, and contributes in fixing upon the country a source of untold evil, from which it may never recover. But why talk with men whose indifference seems to be as immovable as the pall of death? Why attempt to remonstrate with those whose only care for American institutions is to be allowed to sit still and pursue one's avocation without molestation, and who will not feel the grip of the tyrant, until taxation becomes a burden too intolerable to be borne and the scuffle for life is insupportable!

THE DUTY OF THE HOUR.

The fact that North Carolina will have a Radical Convention, to prepare for her people a new Constitution, is what, perhaps, few citizens of the State have thought a probable event. Yet the stolid indifference of many of our white people have forced it upon us, and it becomes us to set like men in the premises. The colored race are not wholly blamable for this state of things. Unexpectedly endowed by Congress with the right of franchise for the first time, it was but natural to suppose that they would be eager to exercise it, and as but few of them knew how to exercise that important privilege, it was but natural for them to go together and follow the lead of those who, in order to secure their confidence, were in a great measure obliged to ignore the fact that they were white. That they have gone directly against the interests of the white race, all know, but, in doing so, no doubt, the object was to get as much for their own race as possible. The blacks have, therefore, acted pretty much as human nature dictates, and should their course prove a false step, as it surely will, and they should fall into the ditch, it will be into one dug for them by those who have misled them.

The Conservaties, who have done their duty in the late elections, have nothing to regret. The defeat may prove the most speedy means of their ultimate triumph. Nor should we be much disturbed by the ultra course which may be taken by the Radicals. The fiercer, the more over-bearing and vindictive they may be, the sooner their day will be over, and the cause of truth, of right and the Constitution will again triumph. Let the Conservatives bear, therefore, their reverses with manly fortitude, moderation and undaunted courage. The day of redemption will come, and, though it may be delayed, its coming is none the less SURE.

ROCKINGHAM.

A correspondent, writing us from Went worth, says: "The election is just over in this county, and by a secret movement the county has been carried for the Radicals.—Representations were made to Maj. Worth, Commandant of the Post at Greensboro, that Inspectors could only be had at three places in the county, and these the strongest negro precincts. So, orders were received here, late last Saturday night, to consolidate the six precincts of the county into these three,—giving only one day's notice of the change. But all of the negroes were notified, and they walked 20 miles to vote. The whites were completely fooled out of their votes,—not one-third of the registered whites voting. No white man voted the Radical ticket at this place and no negro the Conservative."

The vote at Wentworth, on the Convention question, was 279 for and 113 against.

The same correspondent, above alluded to, gives us the following pedigree of the delegates elect:

Henry Barnes:—Extreme Union man,—has been consistent,—some show of respectability,—harbored deserters during the war.

Jno. H. French:—A deserter from the Confederate army,—low birth and no standing in society,—is for amalgamation and everything else that is mean.

ALABAMA.—The impression appears to prevail that the suggestions of the Radical leaders at Washington will in some sort check the violence of the ultra Radicals of the Alabama Convention, and will lead them to modify some of their measures.

HILLSBORO.'—All honor to this noble little town! We understand that not a single white man in it voted the Radical ticket.

CONGRESS.—The proceedings of Congress, on the first day, seem to favor the idea that little positive legislation of any kind will be undertaken until the regular session.

A MEETING was held in Salisbury, on yesterday, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Conservative State Convention, to be held in this City, on the 11th instant.

The Conservatives of Orange will meet in Hillsboro,' for the same purpose, on the 26th.

A RADICAL PAPER ON THE RADICAL VICTORIES IN THE SOUTH.

The Chicago Tribune makes some comments on the recent elections in the Southern States, which are worthy of consideration by several classes of Southern people. We copy as follows:

"The real cals, that is to say the negroes, as they make up more than four-fifths of the rank and file of the party, are triumphant. The next thing in order is, if we may credit the Southern papers, a war of races, in which the blacks will be exterminated. We do not believe that the threatened war will occur.

* * * * *

Nevertheless, very serious, perplexing, and possibly disastrous consequences may follow the ill-timed and unnecessary action of the blacks in handling so closely together for a political purpose, and the sudden and inexcusable folly of the whites in permitting that purpose to be only partially executed.

* * * * *

What we have now to fear is not a war in which the sword and cannon will be invoked, nor a general and miscellaneous throat-cutting, in which blacks and whites will alike take part and alike suffer. The weapons at the command of the triumphant party are, while not less potent, more refined than the implements of blood. They have control in the States that we have named of the law-making power; and it is to be feared, we think, that, under the lead of bad men of our own color, they may be tempted in Convention to make use of that power in such a way that the whites will in their turn become the down-trodden race.—It is among the possibilities, that between the heavy taxes, wide disfranchisement, sweeping confiscation, and sweeping disabilities—all of which a Convention can ordain—the whites will be driven from the States, or will remain only to endure the exactions and oppressions of a government that they are powerless to influence or control. These, we say, are among the possibilities of the future."

* * * * *

If the contingency which we are led to fear, does occur, and the action of the authorized Conventions in the South is a departure from the principles and purposes that the party has announced, their action will be undone. African slavery was not overthrown that slavery of the white man might be established on its ruins.

It would seem that if the negroes of the South were not over anxious to be misled by the Northern men among them, that they would pay some heed to the voice of those remaining at home. Such sentiments as the above, from one of the leading Radical organs of the North, are full of meaning, and the very fears here expressed have found at the ballot box earnest and forcible endorsement.

"Under the lead of bad men of our own color," the blacks are making legitimate and illegitimate use of their power, and, but for the timely intervention of the North, the whites must inevitably be driven from Southern States, or endure the oppression of the negroes, or end them by a conflict of races, which seems to be invited and may become absolutely necessary.

These troubles have been brought upon us by the Radical party, and their continued endorsement and support by them is fast undermining their strength, and the reactionary tide of Conservative Democracy is sweeping them away. Bad men may revel in temporary power conferred by black suffrage, but their own party friends at the North give them timely warning that such iniquities shall not continue. The handwriting is on the wall, and the Radical party is doomed. Its own excesses, the conduct which it has encouraged among the blacks, have secured its early and permanent defeat.

ALAMANCE.—The defeat of the Hon. R. Y. McAden, in this County, is much to be regretted. Several hundred whites inexcusably abstained from voting; and it is rumored, besides, that in the strong Conservative precincts east of the Haw, no polls were opened. Why was this?

THE ELECTION.

The election is over, and, in our opinion, the Radicals have carried the State. We hope we may be mistaken, but from the beginning we have not been sanguine, and if defeated in the State we shall not be disappointed. Our fears have resulted from the inexplicable apathy which had seized upon our people every where—an apathy from which nothing could arouse them. Dispirited by repeated failures—sick at heart from hopes deferred, they have become despondent and have suffered the election to go by default, if it has gone against them, as we fear it has. In this county there were nearly six hundred white men who have failed to exercise the franchise. Such, we doubt not, has been the case all over the State.—If misfortunes come from the result, these men have themselves alone to blame. They can give no satisfactory reason for their conduct. It is true they may say that if a bad Constitution is presented they intend to vote against its ratification, but they should never have run the risk of any such contingency. They should have contested the ground at every step, and should have left no honorable means unemployed to defeat the Radical candidates for the Convention in every county. If Congress should so modify the reconstruction laws as not to submit the Constitution framed by the Convention to the people for their ratification, and that Constitution should be a bad one, how must they who refused to vote then reproach themselves! The franchise was conferred upon them that they might use it for their own protection, and having failed to so use it, they are left without excuse, and will reproach themselves for their negligence when it is too late. We hope, however, all will learn a wise lesson from the result, and be alive to their dearest interests for the future.—Old North State.

ESTERM.—Among the many pleasing and picturesque sights along the shores of Lake Superior the eye of the tourist lingers at La Pointe. An old jesuit mission church is still standing amidst other marks of the early settlers. In the adjacent burial ground may be seen a tombstone with the following inscription:

"This stone was erected to the memory of ——, who was shot as a mark of esteem by his surviving relatives."

THE CASE OF JOHN H. SURRATT.—Surratt's case will not be reached again until a large number of persons now in jail are given a trial. This will take until next March; in the meantime, an effort will be made, which will probably be successful, to take the case to some Northern State for trial, on account of a difficulty or impossibility of obtaining a jury here.—Wash. Cor. Phila. Inquirer, Nov. 18th.

That proud man, Pope, dressed in a little brief authority, has taken upon himself the task of directing disbursements from the Treasury of Georgia. Where does the man who never stopped to see the faces of his enemies find authority for this?

General Howard, it is said, is to be mustered out of the the F. B. We trust that the Bureau will follow its illustrious chief.

LOCAL FREIGHT TARIFF.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The new "Local Freight Tariff," of the North Carolina Railroad, contains some features, that ought to interest every citizen of the State.

The complaint has often been made, that our people could not transport certain articles of home product, over our railroads, on account of the high rates charged for freights. So far as the North Carolina Railroad is concerned, this obstacle has been considerably removed, and the reduction which the business men of the S. t. have long sighed for, has already taken place, and the new schedule is now in operation.

Articles for transportation are classed under four heads:

The First Class being the highest.—These are, with very few exceptions, imported goods. They are a fraction over a cent a pound, over the entire length of the road, 223 miles.

The Second class, a short catalogue, are one cent a pound, the whole length of the road—still containing but few home made articles.

The Third class are about three quarters of a cent a pound, the whole route. This embraces the more expensive and perishable of our products, and imported goods, say half and half.

The Fourth class deserves the particular attention of our people. It embraces a large number of articles of the highest importance to our country in its present state. This class is charged sixty cents a hundred, for the whole route, and then certain articles are put down at half rates, i. e. half of the fourth class rates, or half of sixty cents a hundred, i. e. thirty cents a hundred for two hundred and twenty three miles.

Take the article of Apples, mentioned in your issue of Saturday last, which, the Wilmington Post says, cannot be brought from Western N. C., because of the high rates. The freight on a barrel of Apples, under the new tariff, from Charlotte to Goldsborough, is thirty cents a hundred, or, allowing a bushel to weigh fifty pounds, fifteen cents a bushel.

Brick, Beans, shelled Corn, Coal, Hay, Iron, Lumber, Oats, Potatoes, Peas, Rosin, Salt and Vegetables, are all put down at half rates of the fourth class or thirty cents a hundred. Fertilizers are fifteen cents a hundred. Flour is about seventy-five cents a barrel. Cotton is forty eight cents a hundred, and the manufactured cotton, brown Cotton and yarn, is the same.

There is no longer any excuse for our people eating Northern apples, cabbage, potatoes, or anything that can be bought up the country.

It is not possible, the writer thinks, to get these articles from New York or Baltimore at so low a cost of freight. As good an apple in my opinion can be bought up the country, as can be found in the country generally.

So much for the North Carolina Rail Road. I know but little of the Tariffs of other Roads. But so far as the Central Road is concerned, the remedy has been applied, and is now in vogue, and should not only be known, but patronized.

I learn that whilst the Board of Directors of the N. C. R. R. deserve the credit of this reform, it is said that Maj. R. S. Tucker, of your city, was mainly instrumental in urging and effecting this reduction. But without discussing the policy of high freights, the whole State has cause to congratulate themselves, the Board, and the Major in particular.

The writer of this has not a dollar in the N. C. R. R. But he is a native of N. C. and he has watched its development with intense interest. He rejoices in every step forward, and this is his apology for this communication. H.

CHARLES DICKENS IN AMERICA.—There need be no fear as to the welcome which Charles Dickens will receive in America.—That welcome will be as cordial, as general, and as deep as the admiration which all educated Americans feel for the writer of whom Lord Lytton could say, with as much truth as grace, that he has moved the world "to tears which never weaken and to laughter which never degrades." The people of the "Hub," who are nothing if not idolators, may very possibly caricature this cordial welcome into a comical kind of worship; and it is eminently probable that Mr. Dickens may be tempted, here and there, to-day as strongly as he was a quarter of a century ago, to quiz the lion-hunters whom he will find ardent and insatiable upon his trail. But the people of the United States have other and more serious matters upon their minds now than they had a quarter of a century ago; and it will be less their fault, we are sure, than the fault of Mr. Dickens himself, if the great humorist this time shall carry home with him materials for any but a thoroughly good-natured book upon America. We advise the Loyal Leaguers, however, to close their club doors against his coming. The hand which drew the portraits of Elijah Pogram, Stiggins, and Chadband has not yet lost its cunning. N. Y. World.

THE FRIGHT OF THE RICHMOND NEGROES.—The excitement among the negroes of Richmond on the subject of being caught alive for dissection continues. They now believe that forty medical students from New York are in Richmond for the purpose of procuring material for dissection. Very few are seen on the streets after night, and not more than fifty attended a circus last night, while heretofore thousands have usually been present. The panic has been started by designing scoundrels to accomplish wicked purposes.—Washington Correspondent N. Y. Herald.

The dead body of Ellen Flynn, who disappeared from Worcester, Mass., on the 6th inst., was found on the 16th in a ploughed field in the Southwestern part of the city.

The drought in Illinois continues. The cisterns and wells are all dry, and in many cases the water is hauled for miles.

They are playing Othello in the theatre at Salt Lake City with fifteen Desdemonas. The smothering scene is very exciting.

A curious decline has taken place in the catch of fish in Lake Michigan, and a simultaneous increase of the catch in Lake Erie.

Tennessee farmers seem to be discouraged at the cotton prospects in that State, and are said to be turning their attention to wheat.

The new Chinese Temple, completed recently at Portland, Oregon, is said to resemble in its interior a well stocked pawnbroker's shop.

Artemus Ward's property turns out to be less than $16,000. He was thought to be worth $50,000.

Three thousand dollars worth of property was destroyed in Greencastle, Ind., by the Tornado, on Friday last.

The Germans of St. Louis have succeeded in obtaining the repeal of the Sunday liquor law in that city.

Fourteen respectable men have been arrested in St. Landry parish, La., for killing a man named John Woods.

A Roman Catholic Cathedral to cost $75,000 is about to be erected in Bloomington, Illinois.

The Tennessee State militia cost the State to date $182,595.49.

THE ALABAMA "CONSTITUTIONAL" CONVENTION.

(Correspondence of the N. Y. Herald.)

MONTGOMERY, Nov. 18, 1867.

The Convention to-day has got through more business probably than during the whole of its previous session. Two of the most important committees have presented their reports, and there has also been a larger stream than usual of ordinances, petitions, resolutions and other miscellaneous legislative "rigmaroles." It certainly seems as though the managers of the Convention have been relieved of all doubts in regard to their future action, and are now prepared to push matters through as expeditiously as their working three-fourths majority enables them to do. A few days more will probably enable the delegates to finish their labors and return home to their Ethiopian constituents.

The negro delegates have so far religiously kept silence, a fact all the more remarkable since previous experience has always shown that men, whose mental capacity and oratorical qualifications fit them only to say nothing, have invariably spread themselves in the most voluminous and unlimited manner, whenever the opportunity has been afforded them. This curious and isolated instance of ignorance and stupidity remaining mute, can only be accounted for on the hypothesis that the colored element has been strictly charged by Bingham, of torch and turpentine notoriety, and its other political mentors, to preserve silence. It is a pity, however, that a body, the physical aspects of which are so grotesque and fantastic, should not have had its intellectual complexion photographed in its debates.—But there is still time for the barbers and plantation buck niggers, who now stand charged by the radical party with the task of framing the organic law of the State of Alabama, to display their matchless stores of rhetoric before the eyes of the men whose beards they have scraped, and whose boots they have blacked, and whose cotton they have picked, and irradiate the hitherto prosaic chronicles of the Convention with the loftiest flights of Ethiopian wit and fun and the profoundest and closest efforts of Ethiopian logic. And present indications demonstrate clearly that the darkeys will not tranquilly endure much longer to remain as dumb as so many Trappist monks or to sit tacitly out many more sessions of the Convention like so many ebony automatons. No one who has been electrified by the stentorian accents in which they shout out aye and no as Bingham's trembling hand dictates, would venture to assert that nature intended them to contentedly maintain forever the monotony of unbroken quietude; no one who has observed the authoritative and dignified manner in which they instruct the solitary white messenger to bring them the mucilage or the ruler would dare to say that any feelings of modesty or diffidence would induce them to refrain from venting their proper share of bunkum.

It is a fact worthy of being assigned a place in these annals, that the smiles of beauteous women rained influence upon the Convention to day. Several females of the variety known in the South as the "bright yellow," attired in the gaudiest and most flaunting glories of cheap finery, were present on the floor during most of the session. A dilapidated sofa, covered with what had once been purple velvet, was wheeled into the room for their accommodation. The gallant Caraway, whose poetic laurels and assiduous attentions seemed to commend him especially to the favor of these specimens of the dusky-fair, hovered constantly around them, and labored incessantly to explain to them the operations of the Convention, which, it is quite unnecessary to add, he did not himself understand in the least. It is rumored that there is a little romance in connection with this gentleman. For some time he has been "sticking up" to an African belle, with some beauty and more greenbacks, and his acceptance as a suitor has been made contingent on his succeeding in effecting an entrance into political life as a delegate to the Puritan-negro Convention in this State. His exertions have now been crowned with success, and he will soon be united in the bonds of holy matrimony to the lady of his choice. The story is only given for what it is worth; I do not vouch in any manner for its accuracy. It may be added that he was originally a barber, and that he has since distinguished himself as a poet, an editor, and, as will be seen by a reference to the former proceedings of the Convention, also as a "spellist."

This same gentleman, Caraway, opened the business of the Convention this morning by proposing the following "amendment to the constitution," which was referred to the appropriate committee:—That common carriers shall not have power to make distinction between citizens while in transit from one part of the State to another, on account of race or color.

This is generally understood to be intended to compel the proprietors of sleeping cars to give tickets for berths to all travelers, without regard to color. An attempt was made to table it, but was lost, the negroes indignantly yelling out "no" in tones, the purport of which was not lost upon such of the delegates as depend most upon negro favor. They remembered, doubtless, the story about the man who was caged up with a lion, and did not pay proper attention when the beast gave a warning roar. The negroes have but to speak loud enough, and they shall have all they ask for.

THE HEAVY ROBBERY IN DANVILLE—THIRTY-TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS STOLEN.

The Danville Register says:

"On Sunday night last, the largest sum of money we have ever known to have been stolen at one time, in this town or section of country, was abstracted from the iron safe in the counting room of Mr. J. M. Walker's store. We learn that Mr. Walker returned from the Northern cities last Friday, and brought with him a large amount of money which he placed in the iron safe.

On Sunday night, about ten o'clock, the negro man, who usually sleeps in the store room, returned from preaching, and, on attempting to open the outer door with a key, found that it was fastened with a bolt on the inside, and went at once and gave the alarm to Mr. W. and some of his clerks. On reaching the store they found that some person had entered through a window of the factory which adjoins the store, passed through the factory and passage into the counting room where the safe was deposited, had opened the safe and taken out about $32,000 in national currency. The outside door of this safe was secured by an iron bar held with a padlock. This bar the burglar filed and then broke with a crowbar which he found in the factory. The key to the inside chamber of the safe, we understand, had been lost for some time. So, after opening the first door, he had no difficulty in reaching the box that contained the money. This box he carried to the rear of the building, broke it open with a bar of iron, took the money out of three large envelopes containing it, and left these envelopes, and all other papers in the box, on the spot.

The affair created a good deal of enquiry and some excitement in town yesterday, but no facts were disclosed which promised to fix this bold roobery upon its perpetrator."

Rev. Dr. Collyer, of Chicago, calls the opera "handmaid of the church."

The negroes of Leavenworth City, and, perhaps, of "bleeding Kansas" generally, though deserted by leading Republicans, who abandoned negro suffrage to its fate, in order that white Radicals might secure the loaves and fishes, although defeated, are not discouraged. They have, however, abandoned any further trust in their late white friends, and now appeal to Congress. To this end a meeting of the negroes at Leavenworth was held on the 12th inst., at which the following, among other resolutions, was passed:

Resolved, That we recommend to the State Central Committee to call a State Convention, to assemble as soon as practicable, for the purpose of taking measures to petition Congress to give us the right of suffrage.

Six burglars worked four hours on the night of the fifth to open the safe of the Treasurer of Lake county, Ohio. If they had succeeded, they would have got nine dollars.

From Physicians.

We hereby certify that the Rosadalis is prepared by a Physician, who is an experienced Pharmaceutist and Chemist, and that his remedy is an efficient and reliable one in SCROFULA, Syphilis, &c., it having performed some remarkable cures in this vicinity.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Tertiary Syphilis, (one a terrible case of eight years' standing,) in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
A. B. NOBLES, M. D.

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee, and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—[one tumor reached a large size.] The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was extended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

Rosadalis cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

Consumption, in its Early Stages, can be Cured.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 4th, 1867.

Dear Dr. Lawrence:—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis," I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nealy two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the emaciated form, glossy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis, as a tonic—which she did—imagine my surprise and gratification, when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually cease d, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. E. ANN SMITH.

Salt Rheum Cured! Remarkable Cure!!

DR. LAWRENCE, Wilson, N. C.:

My Dear Sir:—For the last ten years (until recently) I suffered with an inveterate eruption of the skin—called by physicians "Salt Rheum," with which I suffered terribly; the pain and itching was almost intolerable. I tried several of the best physicians in Europe and this country—have visited several celebrated Springs—spent thousand of dollars—and failed to get any better. In December 1866, being in Charleston S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel, that he had been cured of

We learn that this County elected Radical delegates by a decided majority.

GRANVILLE.

John W. Ragland and J. L. Moore, white Radicals, and Cuffee Mayo, negro, elected to the Convention. A sweet trio, this!

IREDELL.

This County has gone Radical, owing to the apathy of the whites,—the same old story. Iredell is a part of the voting District of Caldwell, Wilkes, Iredell and Alexander, which elects five Delegates.

BURKE

Has also gone Radical. It, together with McDowell, elects two Delegates.

ROWAN AND DAVIE.

These two Counties, which are, together, entitled to three Delegates, have probably elected the Conservative ticket, although in the former the Conservative majority is very small, where it should have been very large. Over 600 Conservative white men absented themselves from the polls. For Convention 1,798; Against 359.

MECKLENBURG.

This County has probably gone Radical. In Charlotte, more than 300 whites refused to vote. Commenting upon which fact, the News says:

"When the votes were counted on yesterday, it was found that there were three hundred and thirty white men who had registered in this city, who had neglected or declined to vote. Three hundred and thirty men, with homes here, and vital interests here, with wives and children, fathers and mothers here—the graves of whose ancestors are under the green sod here, who, for some reason not disclosed and entirely immaterial, quietly stayed at home, and allowed the negroes and their white Radical allies to carry the county of Mecklenburg! If these gentlemen belong to the class of "masterly inactivity men," who are done with the affairs of earth, and are quietly awaiting the trump of doom, we think they had better get themselves embalmed, and be put out of the way of the busy thinking world, who take some interest in sublunary affairs. Are they too fastidious to risk being jostled by an African on their way to the polls? Men quite as good as themselves did not allow such school-girlishness to deter them from doing a sacred duty. Were they in sympathy with the Radical party? If so, for one we would have respected them much more had they openly and honestly voted their sentiments, instead of skulking in the background. If they did not know that there was an election, one might pity their ignorance, and feel much disposed to improve the free-school system in this section. If they did not understand the importance of the election, they ought to have inquired of the negroes, who voted more than seven-eighths of their registered strength. Be the fact as it may, the county of Mecklenburg has good cause of complaint against this delinquent three hundred and thirty."

SARGENT.—The great Illusionist postponed his entertainment last night, on account of the Series at St. Mary's.

He will give a Matinee to-day, and an exhibition to night. See announcement in another column.

We repeat, what we have heretofore said, that Sargent is inimitable in most of his wonderful feats.

SQUARE AND COMPASS.—This excellent Masonic Weekly, we have heretofore inadvertently omitted to mention, has passed into the hands of Messrs. R. W. Best and Andrew Syme, of this City, who are conducting it with industry and ability. Mr. Best is already well known to the public for great energy in whatever he undertakes, and we can vouch for our young friend Syme, who is not so well known to the public, that he is a gentleman of great worth and excellent capacities. Under their joint auspices, the Square and Compass will be made a most efficient exponent of Masonry, and a valuable Journal of literature and miscellany. We commend them and their publication to the Order and the public.

EDUCATION OF THE HORSE.—For some days, Mr. J. P. Harper, of Madison, Ind., has been in this City, engaged in giving instruction to gentlemen in the education of the Horse. We learn that some fifteen or twenty were instructed by him. Mr. Harper had several of what he called educated horses with him, and his exhibitions on the streets drew large numbers to witness them. His most thoroughly educated horse seemed to be controlled entirely without a bridle, by his hands, whip and voice.

Mr. H. does not call himself a horse tamer. He discards entirely Rarey's theory, but operates directly upon the sense, memory and affections of the horse, but by such tones of voice, and such actions and discipline, as serve to convince the horse that his master or driver is the greatest and best of all beings.

What proficiency his classes were able to make, we have not learned, but his theory, as explained to us, strikes us as rational and philosophical, and we believe, if carried out, would cure many bad and dangerous horses. Indeed, the whole theory of Mr. H. strikes us as eminently proper for the education of mankind. Right reason, kindness, amiability and docility of manner, are as essential elements in the proper discipline of mankind, as in the education of animals.

ST. MARY'S SCHOOL.—SOIREE MUSICALE.—A very brilliant musical entertainment was given at St. Mary's School, in this City, last evening, which was attended by quite a number of delighted ladies and gentlemen. The programme of exercises was gotten up and directed by Mr. Geo. F. Hanson, the Professor of Music, than whom there are few more accomplished masters of the Art, anywhere. It embraced the choicest selections and gems, vocal and instrumental, from the old maestros, together with some of the Professor's own compositions; and it is almost needless to say that they were rendered with a spirit, taste and impressment that reflected credit upon the young ladies and upon the superior advantages which they enjoy at the excellent institution, over which Dr. Smedes has so long and successfully presided. In all its appointments and departments, there is no superior school in the Country,—a fact abundantly illustrated by the hundreds of refined and useful women, who were educated within its walls, and who now adorn society throughout the South.

Col. John S. Mosby was in the gold room yesterday by invitation of a broker, and some of the Chesterfields of that place hissed him. A majority of the members, however, invited him to stay. And he stayed.—N. Y. World, 20th.

Immense beds of peat lie convenient to the city of St. Paul, Minn. A company has been organized there, and is about commencing operations to supply the city.

Charleston (S. C.) is moving in the matter of removing the obstructions in her harbor. Probably no city in the world has its harbor so much obstructed with the debris of war.

The Ohio wine makers are now busily at work, and the newspapers of the State estimate that the wine crop this year will be the largest it has ever had.

Another base ball accident is reported out West. A little boy in Missouri had his nose taken off and his head rent by a bat slipping from the hands of the player.

Cleveland is being overrun with paupers. They flock there in such numbers that it has become necessary to administer the oath as to their residence, &c.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23—P. M.

Revenue to-day $348,000

The premature publication of Grant's report creates excitement.

Grant does not recommend the discontinuance of the Freedmen's Bureau. Over $9,000,000 have been expended for bounties under the law of July last.

The continuation of surveys for river and harbor improvements, especially in the Western waters is recommended.

Grants estimate a omit the appropriations for the Freedmen's Bureau, and the Bureau of Military Justice. The total estimate is $77,000,000 instead of $170,000,000 as heretofore published.—This however is exclusive of the estimate for the Subsistence Department.

MORRIM PREDIMENTS—RADICAL TYRANNY.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 22 P. M.

Gen. Mower has issued orders removing the following officers as "impediments to reconstruction under the laws of Congress": Albert Voorhees, Lieut. Governor, is removed and J. R. Charles Delay, Coroner of the Parish of Orleans, is removed, and Wm. H. Hire is appointed in his place.

Dr. Avery, Mower's newly appointed Sheriff, failing to give a suitable bond, Gen. Hays declined to surrender the office until a bond is accepted, and Mower has ordered the newly appointed Coroner to perform the duties of the Sheriffalty ad interim.

THE ALABAMA CONVENTION.

MONTGOMERY, Nov. 22—P. M.

The "Judiciary" article of the Constitution, as reported, provides that the Governor shall appoint all Judges, Solicitors and Chancellors, to be confirmed by the Senate.

Magistrates shall be appointed by the Governor, but the Legislature may change the manner of appointment.

Chancellors shall appoint Registers, and Judges appoint Clerks of Courts. The term of all these officers shall be six years.

This appointment of Judicial officers was fixed, in order to prevent the elections being controlled by the negro voters. The Convention negroes strongly opposed the policy.

An Ordinance was introduced to tax liquors 25 cents a gallon, in order to meet the expenses of the Convention.

An ordinance was introduced and refered, providing that the loan of $225,000 to the Alabama and Tennessee railroad, which was re-paid to the State in Confederate currency during the war, shall be made good now in greenbacks.

ARRIVAL OF HON. JEFFERSON DAVIS IN RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Nov. 22, P. M.

Mr. Davis left Canada last Tuesday, and to avoid attracting attention in New York, went on board the Steamer Albemarle at her sailing hour, nine o'clock, Wednesday night. He was unaccompanied by any one. On his arrival here he took a coach and drove to Judge Ould's house. No one expected his arrival to-day—not even his counsel.

His counsel, to-night, deny the report that they have any intention of resisting a trial before Judge Underwood.

Mr. Davis is in excellent health and quite cheerful. Many of his friends are calling on him to-night.

LETTER FROM GEORGIA.

JOURNALS IN 1840—THEIR NAMES AND POLITICAL COMPLEXION—PUBLIC MEN—MEMORY AWAKENED—MR. CLAY—SCENE AT THE CAPITOL—WHERE ARE THE GIANTS?

MACON, GA., Nov. 11, 1867.

In 1840—that ever memorable year of hard cider and log cabins—the principal political newspapers in North Carolina were, the Register, the Standard, the Wilmington Journal, the Fayetteville Observer, and the Greensboro' Patriot. The Register was edited by one of the best men I ever knew—Weston R. Gales—and the Standard was under the editorial control of Mr. Thos. Loring—a man whom I have great cause to love and revere.

The Register taught me all I knew of political matters. It was my first text book in public affairs. Nor did I alone draw information from its columns. Being in the zenith of its influence, and supported by such men as Graham, Gaston, Badger, Morehead, Miller, Cherry, Stanley, and a host of other "bright particular stars" that shone in the political firmament of the good Old State, it wielded a power which was fearfully felt by its adversaries. I regarded its accomplished editor as the embodiment of every thing grand and noble; and what he said through the columns of his paper, I took for Gospel truth. My first attempt at writing for the public eye was for the Register, and although I have given nonbeties articles to the press since then, I never experienced a hundredth part of the anxiety for their appearance I did on that occasion. I could think of nothing else. And when the morning of publication arrived, with all speed I rushed to the office for a paper.—My eyes eagerly ran over each article until I found my piece. Yes, there it was. Good! All right, just as I wrote it. Unfortunately however, a large part of it had been copied verbatim from an old magazine. Great was my mortification, therefore, to see in the Standard, of the next day, a full expose of the plagiarism. I at once wilted—caved in, nor did I venture to write any more until several years after. I was sadly discouraged by the exposure.

The Standard was the organ of the Democratic party. It was very ably conducted by Mr. Loring. It also had its friends, among whom I may mention W. H. Haywood, R. M. Sanders, James B. Shepherd, and many others. But the Editor somehow incurred the displeasure of his party, and he sold out to its present proprietor, W. W. Holden, Esq. However much I may have differed with Mr. Holden, truth compels me to say, that he conducted the paper so as to make it rank with the ablest journals of the country. He was a very young man to assume the leadership of a great and powerful party; but his ability was equal to the task before him. To him is mainly due the success which the Democratic party afterwards attained.

The Star was edited by Thomas J. Lemay. It was a strong and able advocate of the policy of the Whig party. But it failed to receive that support which was necessary to its existence, and, like many others it went down. It was for a time revived under different auspices. What astonishing mines of memory allusion to these journals awakens. Though but a lad at the time of which I write, I vividly remember the events of that period.

One little occurrence I will relate.—Mr. Clay visited Raleigh, I think, in 1843. During his stay many distinguished men called upon him. He was the guest of glorious old Governor Morehead, and the Governor spared no effort to interest the nation's greatest statesman. One morning in the genial month of April, quite a goodly company of these eminent visitors assembled in the Senate chamber. Suddenly Gov. Morehead took possession of the President's chair and announced that the "Senator from Kentucky is entitled to the floor." In a moment the hint was taken, quiet reigned, and as the old monarch gracefully arose from his seat, every eye was directed toward him. I was in the gallery ready to shout from excitement. Hear! the "old man eloquent" is beginning to speak. In that assembly are giants. Gaston and Badger, Graham and Morehead, Haywood and Stanley, and a host of others. Besides these, many of the loveliest women of the State were present. The great orator was in his glory. He spoke of the building they were then occupying as a fit monument of North Carolina's public liberality; spoke of the neglect of the State to erect a suitable fence around the enclosure, and presented an imaginary bill appropriating $50,000 for that purpose. In words of burning eloquence he supported the measure. I had never heard anything like it.—Such impassioned words, delivered in such a manner, thrilled my very soul. Graham replied in an eloquent speech. Pettigrew, of South Carolina, spoke in his most captivating manner. Badger came up like a lion. Morehead's whole frame shook with excitement—for such an intellectual battle had never been fought in that chamber.—The question was put, finally, and the measure was adopted. At the next session, sure enough, fifty thousand dollars were appropriated for the purpose of erecting an iron railing around the State house grounds. I was not there when the work was in progress; but I have since had the pleasure of seeing the fence.

The Wilmington Journal, when I first knew it, was in the hands of Messrs. Fulton & Price. The last named gentleman is still connected with it. When I first knew Mr. Fulton, he was a law student in Raleigh. I little thought then that he was destined to become one of the best editors in the State. Abandoning the study of law, he went to Wilmington, and, as editor of the Journal, took high rank as a public journalist. His career, however, was comparatively short. He was suddenly cut down while yet a young man, and just as he was beginning to made a history for himself. I am not familiar with the history of the Journal since then.

And here, let me ask, where are the men, now, of whom I have spoken?—many of them sleep beneath the clods of the valley. Old Harry Clay—the noblest Roman of them all—has gone to his rest. Badger and Gaston have followed, and but few remain to remind the present generation that before them lived a race of giants whose equals the the world will never see again. They are gone, but not forgotten. Oh that they were alive to pilot us through these troublous times! "84."

Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for years, and can say in CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED in a single instance to EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtue. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience, and PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrup is administered.

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which, being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause. You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify.

I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory, or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.
